- Enabling and optimizing the performance of Enterprise Vault;
- License administration;
- Internal research and development, including improving Veritas’ products and services; and/or
- Statistical analysis of product deployment, including analysis of trends and comparisons in our aggregated install base
We may also use Your information to send you promotional information, in accordance with Your permission, as required by applicable law.

Technical Support
In the event You provide information to Veritas in connection with a technical support request, such information will be processed and used by Veritas for the purpose of providing the requested technical support, including performing error analysis.

How We Share Your Information
We are a global organization and we may store and process Your information in other countries, including countries that may have less protective data protection laws than the country in which You are located (including the European Union). The Collected Information will be stored and processed manually and electronically through global systems and tools for the purposes above. The Collected Information may be accessible by Veritas employees or contractors on a need-to-know basis, exclusively to be used in accordance with the purposes described above. For the same purposes the Collected Information may be shared with partners and vendors that process information on behalf of Veritas. Veritas has taken steps so that the Collected Information, if transferred, receives an adequate level of protection.

In order to promote awareness, detection and prevention of internet security risks, Veritas may share the information collected through Enterprise Vault and/or information we may receive from You when You receive technical support, with research organizations and other security software vendors. Veritas may also use statistics derived from your information through Enterprise Vault or submitted by You, to track and publish reports on security risk trends.

Please be advised that in certain instances, it may be necessary for Veritas to disclose Your personal information to government officials or otherwise as required by our legal obligations.

How We Protect Your Information
To protect Your information, we have taken appropriate administrative, technical, physical and procedural security measures, consistent with international information practices.

Your Obligation to Personal Information
It is Your responsibility to ensure that any disclosure by You to Veritas of personal information of Your users or third parties is in compliance with national laws governing the collection, use and protection of personal information applicable to Your country or region of operation. In particular, it is Your responsibility to inform users and third parties that You are providing their information to Veritas, to inform them of how it will be used and to gather appropriate consents required for such transfer and use.

Disclosures to Law Enforcement
Subject to applicable laws, Veritas reserves the right to cooperate with any legal process and any law enforcement or other government inquiry related to Your use of Enterprise Vault. This means that Veritas may provide documents and information relevant to a court subpoena or to a law enforcement or other government investigation.

Accessing, Updating, or Correcting Your Information
Under certain circumstances, You may be able to request the removal of information we have about You. We will respond to requests to access or delete your information within 30 days. We may retain certain data contributed by You if it may be necessary to prevent fraud or future abuse, or for legitimate business purposes, such as analysis of aggregated, non-personally-identifiable data, account recovery, or if required by law.
