VERITAS

Veritas Professional Services

Veritas Professional Services, including Consulting, Managed, and Education Services, advises and empowers organizations to harness their information. Across the information management journey, Professional Services provides solutions to design, implement, operate, and optimize Veritas applications—all with the focus on helping organizations maximize their Veritas investment and achieve business outcomes that matter.

Veritas Consulting Services

Organizations rely on information—housed across multiple environments including the cloud—to achieve their business goals. That reliance requires IT departments and environments to constantly evolve to meet expectations and ensure information is always available, compliant, and relevant. Veritas Consulting Services helps provide an essential 360-degree, multi-cloud approach to information management and empowers companies with powerful solutions.
Consulting Acumen

Spanning the customer journey from prepare, design, and deploy, through optimize, Veritas Consulting Services helps organizations realize information protection, availability, and insight that's critical to attain business goals. What path that journey takes is based on the specific needs of an organization.

Empowering the Customer Journey – Matching Customers' Needs

- Custom Engagements—Recognizing that one size does not fit all, Consulting Services offers custom consulting engagements that provide unique expertise and insight based on individual environments, business goals, and strategic plans. These engagements allow Consulting Services to apply a critical eye to the need at hand.
